Re: United States v. Chaim Lebovits, et. al.,
CR 11-134 (S-1)(SJ)(SMG)

Dear Judge Johnson:

By letter dated yesterday, December 31, 2012 (the "12/31 Letter"), the government, in the above captioned case, moved the Court to adjourn the status conference presently scheduled for this Friday, January 4, 2013, for 30 days, until February 4, 2013, and for an order of excludable delay, in the interests of justice, from January 4, 2013 until February 4, 2013, for the reasons stated in the 12/31 Letter. The 12/31 Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. At the time of the 12/31 Letter, however, the government had not yet heard from two of the five defendants as to whether those two defendants consent to the government's motion. The government writes to advise the Court that all five of the defendants have now consented to the government's motion.

Accordingly, the government moves, on consent of all five of the defendants, to adjourn the status conference presently scheduled for January 4, 2013 for 30 days, until February 4, 2013, and for an order of excludable delay, in the interests of justice, from January 4, 2013 until February 4, 2013, for the reasons stated in Exhibit 1 hereto.

Respectfully submitted,

Loretta E. Lynch
United States Attorney
Eastern District of New York
